Business Vision Lunch Features William Wagasy

Liberty Road Foundation is honored to have US Navy SEAL William Wagasy as Keynote Speaker at its 13th Annual Bellevue Business Vision Lunch.

William Wagasy, a former Notre Dame football player under Coach Lou Holtz, graduated with an accounting degree and a second major in philosophy in 1996. He went on to receive his Juris Doctorate from Pepperdine University in 2000 and his master's in Dispute Resolution from Pepperdine in 2001. Following the attacks of 9/11, he enlisted in the Navy Basic Underwater Demolition/SEAL Training in 2003.

He is a decorated U.S. Navy SEAL, having completed four combat tours from 2002 to 2012, three to Iraq and one to Afghanistan. After his time in the Navy, he served as the Director of Veterans Outreach for the Gary Sinise Foundation and continues to be an official ambassador for the foundation as well as sitting on the Advisory Board for Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors, the Board Council for Hope for the Warriors, the West Coast Host Committee for the Navy SEAL Foundation, and also on the Selection Committee for the Orange County Community Foundation's veteran initiative. Today he is the Vice President of National Sales, National Commercial Services at Commonwealth Land Title Insurance Company.

Special Operations Chief Wagasy will share his powerful philosophy of life and what persevering and performing through harsh and violent conditions has taught him. He reflects on the importance of our awareness of our present opportunity and the sacrifice that made it possible. Discover what being part of a “Team” truly means and handling triumph as well as tragedy. William will motivate you to find your “fight” in life!
