Business Vision Lunch Features Jake Locker

Liberty Road Foundation is honored to have Jake Locker as Keynote Speaker at its 1st Annual Bellingham Business Vision Lunch.

Jake grew up in Ferndale WA. He always enjoyed playing sports and was always surrounded by a big loving family. Football grew to be his favorite sport. He led the 2005 Ferndale High School to a 14-0 record and a state title, throwing for 1,603 yards and 25 touchdown passes for the season with only 3 interceptions. Locker was an excellent running quarterback, as he also rushed for 1,339 yards and 24 touchdown passes for the season with only 3 interceptions. He was also named the 3A state player of the year by the AP and Seattle Times and earned First-team All-state honors from both organizations.

Jake was fortunate enough to have the opportunity to play collegiately at the UW. And he was drafted by the Tennessee Titans overall in the 2011 NFL Draft. Jake started a foundation called “Touchdowns for Kids” that benefited medical bills for youth.

In college Jake met his wife Lauren and they were married in 2011. They have four children - Colbie, Cooper, Colt, and Cade. After their first year in TN, both Jake and Lauren were saved and baptized. They are now in Ferndale seeking the love of the Father and chasing their children.

Benefiting 2 Great Nonprofits

CrossRoads Youth Ranch in Sedro Wooley, is a private nonprofit providing a safe place for at-risk and sexually exploited youth to find holistic healing through trauma-informed equine programming.

Engedi Refuge in Lynden, provides safety and restoration for women who have experienced sexual exploitation or trafficking!

Please join us and help us raise funds for these two nonprofits.
