Business Vision Lunch Features Jonathan Rainey

Liberty Road Foundation is honored to have Jonathan Rainey as Keynote Speaker at its 3rd Annual Whatcom County Business Vision Lunch.

Jonathan Rainey serves as the Chaplain for the Seattle Seahawks. “Whether working one-on-one with teams or speaking to a room of thousands of listeners, I always speak from the heart and look for ways to connect with people from diverse backgrounds and different walks of life.”

Jonathan was born in Tupelo, MS and is the grandson of 2 Baptist pastors. He came to Christ through his mother at the tender age of 8. He attended Morehouse College in Atlanta, GA where he double majored in Pre-Med and Accounting with a minor in French.

It was at Morehouse where he received his call into full time ministry. He played football for Morehouse where he was a three-year starter and the defensive back of the year his junior season. It was during this time that his passion for God and serving people grew. He no longer pursued a career in medicine or business but one in serving by ministering to athletes.

His greatest accomplishments are his relationship with God and finding his wife Cynthia. Jonathan have two children, Josiah Victorious Sim Rainey and Arabella Amari Sim Rainey.

Jonathan has a passion for God, discipleship and growing the Church. His motto in life is to be “obsessed with God and passionate about people.”
